Librarian's Report

Bradford Public Library

Administration:

Town Report was sent in, online library surveys completed and state report checked off. Now we are ready for a new year.

Bill of Rights displayed throughout the library

Tax help program should be starting in February.

Programs:

Amending America

A National Archives Initiative is celebrating the 225th Anniversary of the Bill of Rights and we have their pop-up exhibit here at Bradford Public Library.

Sponsored by the National Archives in collaboration with the Federation of State Humanities Councils and the Vermont Humanities Council.

The Bill of Rights and You will display it through February.

French Conversation

Winter Wellness- Yoga, Meditation and Self-Care

Feb 1, 6:30 PM

Bradford Public Library

Dwindling light and the sheer potential of a new year can sometimes be a recipe for STRESS. Give yourself a needed break and attend to what is most important...replenishing the mind and body.

Come join us at the library for some gentle yoga followed by tea, conversation and some helpful tips for ongoing self-care through the winter months. Yoga mats can be provided if requested in advance.

No experience necessary. Emma Gibbs will lead the session of Yoga. Come dressed ready to stretch with your mats.

Last Tuesday Books and Brew

Last Tuesday of the month, 7 PM

Colatina

No pressure, no deadlines...booklovers just meet, talk about books and sample a delicious microbrew.
