Librarian's Report

Bradford Public Library

Administrative:

New picnic table has been installed beside the library. Wireless users have been making use of this accommodation already. Thanks you to Holly for your inspiration and Tony for his tireless work in making it happen.

Great summer reading programs this year with attendance through the roof. Summer meals served at the library filled a very definite need in the community throughout the Summer Reading programs. Thank you Gail, BES and all her assistants for making this a summer to be proud of.
