

Life on the River

Living across the tracks is not for the faint of heart!
Let me tell you that's where I've lived for 31 years, so let me start.
A lot of property to maintain and appreciate....
Watching for trains, not so great!

The view of the river sometimes takes your breath away....
So much so makes you want to stay!
More than a fortnight or days on end.
Forever and ever, let me tell you friend.
Getting older is not much for me,
As I can't garden as I once did but I can still oversee!

Ho hum, is a thing to say,
As others seem to fritter life away!
