

Praise Poem

I hate my body

Every single part

I hate my stupid brown hair that is dead

I hate my ugly hazel eyes

I hate how fragile I am and how I'm always getting hurt

I hate how all my family members always end up leaving

I hate my stupid laugh and how loud it is

I hate my face my teeth my hands

I hate everything about me

I hate how my nose looks like a ski jump

I hate how I can't keep friends or make new ones

I hate how selfish I can be

I hate how I always wake up in pain

I hate how hard I am on myself

I hate my big eyebrows

I wish I could change everything about me

I hate that I hate everything about me
