

A THOUGHT

— after Horace

the gods should be serenaded especially in times of great suffering more than appeasement
it is a reminder
that beauty is an achievement
surpassing
suffering
the gods then
taking steps
our lauds having
inspired them
to favor us
their children
and end
our torment

RALPH CULVER
South Burlington, VT

Sponsored by
BRADFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY
21 South Main St.
Bradford, VT
802-222-4536
bradfordvtlibrary.org