

There is such a lot of world to see
and so little time we each have eyes.
We hesitate sometimes in reaching out for fear that life will crumble
'neath our finger's slightest touch.
It is from loneliness more than love
we dare to touch another.
We find love when the world touched does not crumble in our hand.

Annie Puciloski
Bradford, VT

Sponsored by
BRADFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY
21 South Main St.
Bradford, VT
802-222-4536
bradfordvtlibrary.org