Seriously, Blue

Seriously, Blue. How we have missed you!
Seems all of our days have been nothing but gray.

Now that you're back, we hope you will stay.
For without your bright sun and cerulean hue, we just wander around with nothing to do.

So please hang around and bring us some cheer.
Soon robins will sing and flowers appear.

The forthcoming days will brighten anew.
With songs in our hearts, we cherish you, Blue.
