

I Wish

From you...
I do not desire, momentary beauty.
I do not desire, false kindness.
I do not wish, you to go ahead or behind me.
I do not wish, to see you suffer.
Surely, from you...
I desire, the splendor of your soul.
I desire, the truthfulness of your thoughts.
I wish, for us to walk side by side.
I wish, to converge with you in happiness.
I do not desire, that you love me as I love you
I only desire, that you love me as you desire.

Being a farmer...

It is not only living life among the fields, it is loving the land and being thankful for what it gives us. It is to have big dreams that are accompanied by big challenges, looking for the best harmony between these two.
It is to show respect to our animals and all our natural resources that in each harvest are waiting for us to give back a little of what it offers us.
And yes, there are those who are born being a farmer and others who learn to love the life of being a farmer.
Thanks to life, for the opportunity to be able to manage the richness of your fields and enjoy the variety of your colors and aromas.
