

Winter

This winter has got me down,
Although I really try not to frown.
We've got rain, we've got snow,
No one knows which way to go.
Get out the shovel, get out the rain coat,
maybe in some cases even build a moat!
Just stop and think,
is it swim or sink.
Please put on a smile,
Shoveling all the while.
It puts muscles in your arms.
Fresh air that always calms.
What would you do with your day?
This I cannot say,
But spring is on the way!
