

Cute Little Compliments

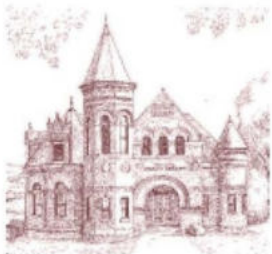

I love cute little compliments
Small kindnesses gifted spontaneously
Beautiful reflexes falling from our lips
Like the leaves of an old autumn tree seeping into the ground to feed the roots of our souls.

I love cute little compliments
Small words captured curiously by our hearts
Heavenly surprises like a flicker in the night, a star in the sky perhaps mistaken for a satellite.

Small concepts enveloped in our minds
Memories from years ago thought lost to the depths
Like a rock thrown in the ocean and carried out to sea, but returns to the shore with a passing breeze.

Cute little compliments
The gift of our souls
The prized possession of our hearts
The eternal of our minds

Cute little compliments
Whatever would we do without these little lies?
