

Great Horned Owl

Acrostic Poem by Mollie

Great

Humble creature sleeps at day

Outside my window in the middle of night

Right in a tree hole she sleeps

Nervous mice scurry away

Ears pointed to the sky

Dashes through the air

Outside it flies across a moonlit sky

Woods all through its home

Little ones eat crickets and bugs

