

THE WONDER OF COWS

Cows, cows. . . .
How can they moo?
Cows, cows. . . .
How can they make milk?

Maybe because they have a different voice box.
Maybe because they can't talk.
Maybe because their babies wail
for milk in a pail.

Cows eat grass, munch by munch.
They eat thru the morning
and all thru lunch.

Cows are gentle and sweet.
They give us milk, butter, cream,
cheese, and meat.

How can cows make so much manure?
It streams out as from a soft-serve ice cream do-er.

Cows, cows. . . .
They make a lot of noise.
Cows, cows. . . .
The boys
are not very nice,
And sadly,
they cannot catch mice.

Cow's babies are cute and soft,
But they are a problem when they hide in the loft.

Cows, cows. . . .
Have you seen them ride on a bus?
If you ever do,
Then you
might hear people fuss.

Farmers, farmers. . . .
How can they walk?
Farmers, farmers. . . .
How can they talk?
Cows ask these questions
over and over,
But they don't get the answers
unless they go to Dover.

Cows, cows. . . .
They are super cool.
They don't have to go to school.
They don't ever follow the rules,
But nobody can call them fools.

For all the talents of the cow,
let's stand up and call out loud,
"Wow! Wow! WOW!!
The wonderful COW!"
